Message from Chaplain Grace

On Sunday, October 12, we celebrate Episcopal Schools Sunday at the 10:15 service at Trinity Church. Mrs. Eiszner's choirs and the St. Richard's Singers will sing during the service. All students and families are welcome to attend, and students in grades one through eight are asked to wear school uniforms. The service has been shortened for children and features familiar chapel hymns and a Gracie story by Chaplain Grace. Students and families who will attend their own churches on October 12 are encouraged to wear school uniforms to church that day and invite their congregations to our school Open House on Wednesday, October 15. See Michele Young or Melinda Fisher for Open House information.

Also at Trinity Church, join us Sunday evening at 6 pm for our annual Harvest Dinner - a celebration of the life of this parish. Turkey and dressing are provided, and you are invited to bring a side dish or desert. Our entertainment for the evening is Indiana author and storyteller Philip Gulley. Gulley is a Quaker pastor who has written several books about life in Indiana. His stories are a regular feature on WFYI's Across Indiana. The evening is free and all are welcome. Child care will be available in the nursery for children under four.

Looking ahead - A unique Halloween opportunity awaits. After trick-or-treating, bring your family (in costume if you like) to Trinity Church at 8 pm on October 31 for the silent film classic The Hunchback of Notre Dame. The 1923 classic silent film starring Lon Cheney, Sr. will be accompanied on the Trinity organ by Todd Wilson. The event is made possible in part by the generosity of law firm Plews Shadley Racher & Braun LLP. Tickets are available in the Trinity Church office - $10 for adults and $5 for children.
